

Matt Muratore

Matt Muratore served five terms as State Representative for the First Plymouth District and was a candidate for State Senate in the Plymouth and Barnstable District.

Matt was first elected State Representative in November 2014. Prior to his election to the House, he served on the Plymouth Select Board from 2010-2015 and as Chairman from 2012-2014. He also was a member of the Plymouth Advisory & Finance Committee and a Board Member and Chairman of the Plymouth Council on Aging.

Matt was often recognized for his record of service in the State Legislature. In 2017, he received the Legislator of the Year Award from the Arc of Greater Plymouth and the Champion of Tourism Award from the Massachusetts tourism community. In 2018, he was given To the Moon and Back's Sam's Award for his work with Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome. The next year, he received Legislator of the Year Award from MassAccess, and in 2023, he received South Shore Recycling Collaborative's Environmental Hero Award.

Matt grew up on the South Shore and has been a Plymouth resident since 2001. He is a graduate of Northeastern University with a Business Management degree. He began his career as a licensed nursing home administrator in 1991, is still a member of the Massachusetts Senior Care Association, and a partner at EF Senior Care, a senior living consulting firm. He was the former co-owner of Crayon College, a day care center in Plymouth and Kingston.

In 2025, Matt was appointed to the newly formed Commonwealth State Assisted Living Residences Commission. Active with numerous local organizations, Rep. Muratore is a member of the Sunrise Rotary Club, Plymouth Youth Development Collaborative, Knights of Columbus, the Plymouth Area Chamber of Commerce, the Plymouth Regional Economic Foundation, and the Plymouth Networking Group for Seniors. He is on the PACTV Board of Directors and a member of the BIDLH-Plymouth Advisory Board.

Matt is the proud father of six daughters, grandfather to one granddaughter, and husband to Kristin, a local attorney.
